Sir,

One-Off Application to Conduct Training SBL Scheme
~ PAMSC Design Festival 2025 (PDF2025)

We, Pertubuhan Akitek Malaysia Sarawak Chapter (PAMSC), are writing to apply for the above scheme for our upcoming Design Festival 2025 happening on 5th - 6th December at Imperial Hotel, Kuching Sarawak.

The objective of the talk is to impart new knowledge and industry best practice in the field of Green Buildings (Day-1, 5th December) and international experience in addressing Culture, Nature and Practice in the design of buildings and the built environment (Day-2, 6th December).

Participants would also gain greater insights on the methodologies and strategies from the speakers on the way they have addressed these critical issues affecting the built environment

We sincerely hope HRD Corp approved our application to encourage more participants to join this meaningful festival.

Attached herewith supporting documents for your reference.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Pertubuhan Akitek Malaysia Sarawak Chapter

SHAU was established in 2009 by Florian Heinzelmann and Daliana Suryawinata with offices in Rotterdam (the Netherlands) and Bandung (Indonesia). The practice offers a comprehensive approach to projects from architecture design to urban planning. SHAU's practice centres on socio-climatic design, highlighting the reciprocal relationship between human activities that affect the climate and how that climate impacts human interactions. The partners' multicultural background and architectural upbringing in various countries, including working for top firms and universities in the Netherlands, contribute to the practice's unique approach. Among the events initiated and led by SHAU were the Kota Tua Creative Festival in Jakarta, and the Jakarta Vertical Kampung masterclass. The partners' activities include teaching at the National University of Singapore and serving as board members in various organizations.
